

Slay Your Goliaths

music and words by R Tom Sutton
arr. David A. Bowman

Piano

6

I sat one day with a lad on my thought of this worldwe live in to - must pre - pare for Go - li - aths we'll

Pno

12

knee and told him that sto - ry of old, of day with pres - sures and tri - als so great, like meet the same as did Da - vid of old. Our

Pno

17

Da - vid and Go - li - ath, the small a - gainst the great as one a - gainst an ar - my of e - vil pull - ing down there tri - als may tow'r o'er us and seem as ten feet tall o'er measured by strength of men. And he looked me right stand ing midst foes on all sides then I thought of the pow'r ing and press - ing us down, but re - mem - ber that

Pno

21

Pno

26

square in the eye and he said; "Why aren't there Go - li - aths to - strength that I see in our youth with cour - age and strength to o'er - we in our tri - als lay claim to strength that is great - er than

Pno

31

day? Where can be found men with faith as Da - vid come to fight the bat - tles and foes we meet to - man's. There are no bat - tles we can - not o - ver -

Pno

36

had and where are those bat - tles so great?" I day. We each have Go - li - aths to come if we take the ar - mor of

Pno

41

2.

slay.
God.

Pno

47

Go andslayyour Go - li - aths,___

Pno

53

God will give you strength. Reach dow deep in - side,___ you'llfind that pil - lar of faith. Shrink not from your tri - als,___ re - mem - ber Da - vid's quest.___ So

Pno

58

Pno

63 to Coda D.S. al Coda strike with all your might that foe you see. Yes, slay your Go - li - aths to - day. ~~and~~ We

Pno

67  Coda

slay your Go - li - aths to - day. Yes, slay your Go - li - aths to - day.

Pno

