

words and music by
R. Tom Sutton

Have You Ever Pushed a Handcart?

arr. David A. Bowman

A

D

Have you ev - er pushed a hand - cart on a dus - ty moun - tain ma - ny push - ing hand - carts in that fate - full try - ing
In a ten - der her - oic mom - ent, three youngmen to res - cue trail? Have you ev - er walked through snow with fro - zen feet? Have you hour. They had strug - gled fac - ing death on ev - ery side. When they came, and they car - ried on their should - ers all the lame. They were ev - er suf - fered hun - ger? Have you ev - er lost your way? Have you faced the rag - ing wat - ers, their great hearts were torn a - gain. They felt val - iant in their ser - vice and they car - ried well their cross, as they

5

E

A

9

D

13

E

A

A

ev - er knelt a - lone and knelt to pray? (There were) Dear_ help less and de - feat - ed and they cried. We went to search and find those who were lost.

17 E A E A E

Lord they cried with a - go - ny. We've come too far to die. Our strength is gone, our hon - or now those pi - o-neers, their sac - ri-fice for us. It's our turn now to

22 A B E D E A

cour-age, too we've giv - en now our all. A mir - a - cle we ask dear Lord, please car - ry on to move the work a - long. The time has come for us to share the come now to our aid. We beg for mer - cy treas - ures we've been giv'n, to serve and lift our

27 E A D E

30 A D E A D.C.

now dear Lord, our lives and souls to save.
fel - low man, then en - ter in to heav'n.